

Frazer Bayley

280 Lauren Ave.
Pacifica CA, 94044

(650) 243-8157
fbayley@cs.uoregon.edu
linkedin.com/in/frazerbayley

SUMMARY

---

Upcoming CIS graduate with strong programming skills across multiple platforms. Academic and Enterprise Software experience in debugging and maintaining software, as well as data modeling and warehousing. Motivated self-learner with strong inter-personal skills.

EDUCATION

---

University of Oregon – Eugene, OR

Completing BS in Computer and Information Science, 176/180 credits completed

Academic Awards: Dean's List (Winter 2016), "Best Hack Against Online Harassment" (2016)

Activities: UO Dev Club, UO Quack Hack (2016), Oregon QuackCon (2016)

COURSES COMPLETED

---

- |                                     |                                       |
|-------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| • Intermediate Data Structures      | • Computer Organization               |
| • Intermediate Algorithms           | • C/C++ and Unix                      |
| • Operating Systems                 | • Principles of Programming Languages |
| • Introduction to Computer Networks | • Database Processing                 |

WORK EXPERIENCE

---

FusionOps, Inc – Mountain View, CA

Supply Chain Management Intern, June 2016 to September 2016

- Wrote and ran SQL scripts to help with data validation.
- Implemented infrastructure to record FusionOps product usage.
- Helped to maintain FusionOps databases.

Electrical Geodesics, Inc – Eugene, OR

Research Intern, February 2016 to June 2016

- Tested Electrical Geodesics software and reported bugs.
- Collected, cleaned and analyzed data from EEG nets.

REI – San Francisco, CA

Cashier / Customer Service, July 2014 to September 2015

- Developed skills to handle multiple tasks at once while serving customers.
- Worked with others to improve the customer experience at REI.

SKILL SUMMARY

---

Java, C, Python, MySQL, HTML, PHP, Data Warehousing, Business Intelligence